Crime Stoppers increase previous reward offer from $1,000 up to $2,500

Flemington, NJ – Crime Stoppers of Hunterdon County, has increased their reward offer from $1,000 to $2,500 for tip(s) leading to the arrest and/or indictment of the suspect(s) responsible for the burglary that occurred on 2/14/15 at the Flemington Pharmacy on Reaville Avenue.

The increase in reward offer comes in collaboration with RxPATROL. RxPATROL® is collaborative effort between crime stoppers, industry, pharmacists and law enforcement to collect, collate, analyze and disseminate information on pharmacy theft. Further information about RxPATROL can be found at www.RxPATROL.org.

According to Prosecutor Kearns, “The preliminary investigation indicates that the suspect disabled the alarm system and forced open a door of the building. Upon entering, it appears the suspect sought out and took narcotic drugs. Surveillance video revealed that the suspect appears to be a white or lighter skinned male, heavy set, and approximately 5-7 to 6 feet tall. Similar burglaries in Holland Township and Raritan Township are currently under investigation.”
